TAX WITHHOLDING CERTIFICATIONS AND ELECTIONS:

Withholding elections are made by choosing one option in the Federal Taxes & one option in the State Taxes section. If you are eligible to elect out of Federal or State withholding & decide to do so, you will be liable for taxes due on the taxable portion of your distribution & potential penalties for underpayment of estimated taxes. You should consult with your tax advisor before making your elections. To withhold taxes from on-demand distributions, elect a withholding percentage; a dollar amount is not permitted. After completing this form, to make a change to a Federal and/or State withholding election, a new form and signature are required.

Federal Taxes  W-4P  OMB No. 1547-0074	You cannot elect out of the 10% mandatory withholding if you have not supplied FCC with your correct SSN or TIN and a "residence address" within the United States. If no election is made we are required to withhold Federal income taxes at a rate of 10% of the gross distribution amount. If you elect to withhold a percentage or a dollar amount, the value must be equal to or greater than 10% of the gross distribution amount. Selection Required (choose one) <input type="checkbox"/> Do NOT withhold Federal income tax from my IRA distribution. <input type="checkbox"/> Withhold Federal income tax of _____ % or $ _____ from my IRA distribution.
State Taxes	Withholding is required in some states if Federal withholding applies, unless you specifically elect out. Residents of CA or VT: The withholding rate applies to the Federal withholding amount and not the gross distribution amount. Residents of MI: If you elect out, you are certifying your distribution is not taxable because it will not create a tax liability when you complete your Michigan tax return or you are age 65 or older. Residents of Washington DC: Taxes will be withheld at the rate of 8.95% on total distributions with no option to elect out. Selection Required (choose one) State taxes will be withheld based on the state listed on your account registration. <input type="checkbox"/> Do NOT withhold State income tax from my IRA distribution. <input type="checkbox"/> Withhold State income tax of _____ % or $ _____ from my IRA distribution.

REASONS FOR DISTRIBUTION FROM IRAs AND REQUIRED ATTACHMENTS

Normal (after age 59½). Check this box if you are over age 59½. Generally, once an IRA participant has reached age 59½, assets may be withdrawn from an IRA without incurring any penalties. It is also considered a "normal" distribution if you are over age 70½ and are taking your Required Minimum Distribution (Traditional, SEP, SIMPLE). Special rules may apply to Roth IRA distributions. For more information, see section below titled Distributions From A Roth IRA.

Premature (before age 59½) - no known exception. Check this box if you are under age 59½ and there is no known exception. You should also check this box if you are under age 59½ and are taking a distribution for one of the following reasons: (1) The distribution is for qualified deductible medical expenses, (2) The distribution is to pay for medical insurance, because you are unemployed and meet the other IRS requirements, (3) You are paying for certain qualified higher education expenses, or (4) The distribution is for a "first time" home purchase ($10,000 lifetime limit). The penalty tax on premature distributions is generally equal to 10% of the taxable amount of the premature distribution. The penalty tax is in addition to regular income taxes due. The penalty tax is not paid at the time of the distribution, but paid directly to the IRS when filing your tax return. If applicable, complete IRS Form 5329 to claim an exception to the 10% penalty. Do not check this box if you are taking a series of substantially equal payments under IRC 72(t), or are converting a Traditional IRA to a Roth IRA. See the next paragraph, Premature - exception to penalty for more information on these exceptions.

72(t) (Premature, exception to penalty). Check this box if you are under age 59½ and your distribution is not subject to the 10% (or 25%) penalty tax because you are: (1) converting a Traditional IRA to a Roth IRA, (2) this distribution is being made because of an IRS levy under section 6331, or (3) this distribution is part of a series of substantially equal payments based on your life expectancy or the joint life expectancies of you and your beneficiary. Substantially equal payments must meet the following IRS requirements: you are using an IRS-Approved distribution method to calculate payments; you are taking at least one distribution annually; and the distributions will continue for 5 years or until you reach age 59½ whichever is later. Please consult your tax advisor for more information on these exceptions.

IRA to Qualified Retirement Plan. You can withdraw assets that have been held in an IRA and roll them over to a your employer's Qualified Retirement Plan. Examples of Qualified Plans are Pension Plans, 401(k), Money Purchase, Keogh, Profit Sharing, Tax Sheltered Annuity, Thrift Savings Plan, 457 Plan and 403(b). If you select this option, all assets being withdrawn must be registered and made payable to the Trustee of the Plan. Attach a signed Letter of Acceptance from the receiving Plan Administrator.

Death. If an IRA participant dies before reaching age 59½ or if an Education Savings Account is paid out due to the death of the original Designated Beneficiary (child), the assets can be distributed to the beneficiary without having to pay the 10% (or 25%) penalty tax, regardless of the beneficiary's age. Attach (1) copy of Death Certificate, (2) copy of Enrollment form or Change of Beneficiary form whichever is most recent, (3) if this distribution form is signed by a representative of the estate, certified Letters of Administration, (4) if a trust is the beneficiary, a copy of the trust agreement may be requested, and (5) if the designated beneficiary is disclaiming their interest, attach your Certified Disclaimer and the FCC IRA Beneficiary Disclaimer Certification form. All assets being withdrawn due to death of the accountholder must be registered and made payable to the beneficiary or beneficiaries. The IRA Beneficiary Surviving Child Certification, completed by the IRA participant's Personal Representative, will be required if (1) the children are named as primary or contingent Beneficiary and an election was made by the IRA participant to have the beneficiaries share in the IRA per stirpes or, (2) FCC is required to pay to unnamed children of the deceased IRA participant.

Divorce. If you are required to transfer some or all of the assets in your IRA to your spouse or former spouse due to a divorce or separate maintenance agreement, generally the assets are directly transferred to the (ex)spouse's IRA. Attach a copy of the court executed divorce decree or separate maintenance agreement, along with additional paperwork, as may be required.

Disability. You can withdraw amounts from your IRA without having to pay the 10% (or 25%) penalty tax if you become disabled before you reach age 59½ or you are taking a distribution due to disability from an Education Savings Account. In order to qualify, you must be disabled within the meaning of IRC 72(m)(7). Generally, the IRS considers you disabled if you cannot do any substantially gainful activity because of your physical or mental condition. Your physician must determine that the condition is expected to be of "long-continued or indefinite duration", or that the condition can be expected to lead to death. The IRS will make the final determination as to whether you are entitled to this exception.

Early SIMPLE. Check this box if you are withdrawing amounts from your SIMPLE IRA in the first two years, are under age 59½ and none of the exceptions under section 72(t) are known to apply. The 2-year period begins on the date the first contribution was deposited into your SIMPLE account. Do not check this box if the distribution is due to death or disability. See the applicable Death or Disability paragraph for more information. The penalty tax on Early SIMPLE distributions is generally 25% of the taxable amount of the Early SIMPLE distribution. The penalty tax is in addition to any regular income taxes due. The penalty tax is not paid at the time of the distribution, but paid directly to the IRS when filing your tax return. Early SIMPLE distributions are reported as Code S on IRS form 1099-R.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON DISTRIBUTIONS FROM A ROTH IRA

Roth IRA - Return of Principal (Contribution). When you take a distribution from a Roth IRA, the principal basis (contribution dollars) is distributed first and is generally tax and penalty free. Special rules may apply if you have deposited a conversion from a Traditional IRA to your Roth IRA.

Roth IRA - Return of Earnings. When you take a distribution of earnings from your Roth IRA, those amounts are taxable unless you meet the reason for a tax-free Qualified Distribution as described below. The portion of the non-qualified distribution that represents earnings will also be subject to the 10% additional income tax for premature distributions, unless an exception applies (see above).

Roth IRA - Qualified Distribution. A qualified distribution is one made after the end of the 5 year period beginning with the first taxable year for which you made a contribution to a Roth IRA AND (1) on or after you attain age 59½, (2) payable to a beneficiary after your death, (3) due to becoming permanently disabled, or (4) for qualified first time homebuyer expenses ($10,000 lifetime limit). Please note, 2003 is the earliest that the 5 year waiting period could have been satisfied.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REGARDING TAX WITHHOLDING

- The minimum amount of federal taxes that can be withheld is 10% of the gross distribution amount.
- If you are a U.S. citizen or resident alien and your address of record with us is outside the United States, or its possessions, federal income taxes are required to be withheld in the amount of 10% from all IRA distributions. You may not elect out of this mandatory withholding.
- If you are a non-resident alien (not a U.S. citizen or resident alien), federal taxes are required to be withheld in the amount of 30% from all IRA distributions.
- An election not to have federal income tax withheld is void if a TIN or SSN is not provided or when an obviously incorrect taxpayer identification number is furnished.
- In certain states, tax withholding is required on IRA distributions unless you specifically elect out of state withholding. States have various withholding requirements. You should consult your tax advisor or your state department of revenue for additional information.
- State withholding is not an option for states that do not have a state income tax.
- State taxes will be withheld based on the state listed on your account registration.
- Amounts withheld will be remitted on your behalf and will be reflected on the IRS Form 1099R that you will receive from FCC in January of next year.
- Amounts elected for state withholding are in addition to any fees and Federal income tax withholding.

ON-DEMAND DISTRIBUTIONS

"On-Demand" distributions are withdrawals authorized by you upon verbally contacting your Financial Advisor. To establish on-demand distributions, select "on-demand" in the "Distribution Instructions: Type" section of this Distribution Request from IRA form, which must be completed and signed by you. On-Demand distributions can be established and authorized only by you, the owner of this IRA. A POA or anyone with authorized trading power cannot be authorized to request On-Demand distributions. Distributions of stock will be valued by using the closing price from the prior market business day. You may choose to have federal and/or state taxes withheld from your "on-demand" distribution. However, to ensure that withholding regulations are satisfied, you may only select a withholding PERCENTAGE. Your withholding election can be changed or revoked at any time by completing a new distribution form. Once "on-demand" distributions have been established, a new distribution form needs to be completed and signed by you when changes are made to the "Reason for Distribution", the "Method", or the federal or state withholding election. Only one On-Demand distribution form may be in effect at a time and a separate form is needed for each of your IRAs. Only one set of instructions is allowed per IRA.
